

SPEAKING TOPICS

HISTORICAL FICTION & RESEARCH

Perfect for book festivals, library events, and history-focused organizations.

The Researcher's Obsession: Digging Deep Without Getting Lost

How Sharon's meticulous research process, from archives to cemeteries, brings authenticity to her novels.

Reconstructing the Forgotten: Women, Madness, and Power in American History

Drawing from Veil of Doubt and The Grays of Truth, exploring how women's stories have been silenced or misinterpreted through history.

Writing History Where It Happened

How living at Selma Mansion, rich with Virginia history, inspires and informs Sharon's writing.

STORYTELLING, CREATIVITY & ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Ideal for business conferences, women's leadership events, and creative summits.

The Art of Reinvention

Sharon's journey from building a multimillion-dollar company to becoming a bestselling author, and how to embrace creative transformation.

Storytelling as Strategy: The Power of Narrative in Business and Life

How storytelling shapes leadership, brand identity, and purpose.

The Ties that Bind: How Community Shapes Story and Success

Why storytelling and community building are inseparable for both writers and entrepreneurs.

SHARON VIRTS

THE CRAFT AND BUSINESS OF WRITING

These topics blend Sharon's expertise as a bestselling author with her entrepreneurial background.

Lessons from the Boardroom to the Bookshelf

What entrepreneurship taught Sharon about persistence, vision, and storytelling in publishing.

The Business of Being an Author: From Passion to Profession

How to approach writing as both art and enterprise; balancing creativity with marketing, publishing, and brand building.

Turning History into Story: Writing Fiction that Sells and Endures

How to balance research and narrative to create novels that are both historically accurate and commercially successful.

AMERICAN HISTORY & SOCIETY

Great for historical societies, universities, and civic organizations.

From Revolution to Reconstruction: America's Defining Century

Exploring the human stories that shaped America's moral and political evolution.

Founding Families and Forgotten Legacies: The Real People Behind Masque of Honor

The duel that defined a generation and what it reveals about honor, duty, and freedom.

The Evolution of Justice in 19th-Century America

From dueling to the courtroom, how America's concept of justice changed over a century.

Virginia's Hidden Histories

How local stories mirror the nation's journey through conflict, progress, and reconciliation.

SHARON VIRTS

WOMEN, RESILIENCE & MEANING

Perfect for women's conferences, book clubs, and nonprofit gatherings.

Writing Strong Women from the Shadows of History

How Sharon brings forgotten female figures to life and gives them voice.

Finding Purpose After Success

Reclaiming creativity, meaning, and passion after career reinvention.

Balancing Art, Family, and Ambition

Personal reflections on navigating family life, creative work, and community leadership.

COMMUNITY, PRESERVATION & PLACE

Ideal for local history organizations, preservation societies, and philanthropic events.

Restoring Selma: Reviving a Home, Rediscovering History

The decade-long restoration of Selma Mansion and the stories uncovered along the way.

History as Heritage: Why Preserving the Past Builds a Better Future

The link between storytelling, preservation, and community identity.

SHARON VIRTS