

SPEAKING TOPICS

Fields of Honor – Power, Memory, and the American Experiment

Perfect for book festivals, library events, and history-focused organizations.

Ink, Pistols, and Power—The Rituals of Conflict in the Early Republic

Who Gets Remembered and Why—Writing History from the Margins

Populism—America’s Long Love Affair with Outsiders

Tariffs, A Stolen Election and Elitism—The Politics of Loudoun County in the 1820s

A Corrupt Bargain—The Election of 1824 and the Rise of National Populism

Preservation and Restoration – History as Responsibility

Ideal for preservation societies and philanthropic events.

Selma Reborn—Preserving the Property and the Past

Stewardship vs. Ownership—The Moral Weight of Historic Property

The Stories Houses Tell—If We Let Them

Houses That No Longer Speak—Lost Virginia Buildings and the Stories They Carried

When You Thought You’ve Seen it All –Lessons of Historic Home Restoration

SHARON VIRT

Life After Success – Legacy, Identity, and Second Acts

These topics blend Sharon's expertise as a bestselling author with her entrepreneurial background.

A Hand Up, Not a Hand Out—Leadership That Changes Lives

Finding Purpose After Success—Identity Beyond Achievement

Reinvention Is Not Failure—Why Starting Over Is a Mark of Strength

Women's Resilience – Power, Reinvention, and Voice

Perfect for women's conferences, book clubs, and nonprofit gatherings.

Teach a Woman to Fish—Changing the Drumbeat of a Generation

Invisible Labor, Enduring Impact—How Women Shaped History Without Credit

SHARON VIRT